GET MONEY BACK IF INJURY OR ILLNESS ENDS YOUR SEASON

TERRY PEAK SAFEGUARD - Available with your season pass purchase.

Terry Peak Season Passes are non-refundable and non-transferable. SafeGuard provides a pro-rated refund if a covered injury or illness prevents you from skiing or snowboarding for more than 30 consecutive days.

The injury or illness must occur after SafeGuard is purchased and during the current season. Medical documentation is required. SafeGuard DOES NOT cover pre-existing or chronic, degenerative injuries or illnesses

---

COST & COVERAGE

SafeGuard Cost — Purchase by October 31

- Adult (13–69): $29.00
- Junior (6–12) & Senior (70+): $18.00

Covered: Accidental injuries and illnesses that occur after SafeGuard is purchased and prevent skiing or snowboarding for more than 30 consecutive days.

Not Covered: Pregnancy; pre-existing injuries or conditions; work-related transfers; moving or relocation; lack of snow; emergency closure; evacuation; accidental death and dismemberment.

HOW TO FILE A CLAIM

For the 2026–2027 season, submit your completed SafeGuard claim form before March 13.

Your claim must include all of the following to be considered:

- Completed, signed, and dated claim form
- Doctor/medical professional documentation
- Exact date of injury or illness
- Specific injury or illness details
- Confirmation that you cannot ski or snowboard for the remainder of the season

Claim forms are available on the Season Pass page at TerryPeak.com.

REFUND DETAILS

Your refund is pro-rated from the date of injury, provided you do not use your pass after that date.

Example: If a 110-day season ends for you on Day 52, 58 days remain.
58 ÷ 110 = 53% refund

Refund Timing: Allow 3–4 weeks after Terry Peak receives your completed claim form and required medical documentation.